“The SBA is thrilled and proud to support Ira Gostin—an SBA success story. He is an entrepreneur and businessman who understands how to bootstrap a business and grow it—and is a two-time beneficiary of available SBA programs, leveraging the SBA to make his dream come true. He is a must-see speaker for all business owners in our community.”

I'm Ira Gostin. I have launched over half-a-dozen businesses in my career and worked on nearly $1 billion in financing and equity raises, including a $400 million IPO. As a mentor and business plan competition judge, I harness this experience and apply it to the needs of small business owners and entrepreneurs to help them establish and grow their business. As a marketing communications strategist, I specialize in the art of business storytelling and work with business leaders around the world to better tell their stories. Please join me as we launch this exciting Mastermind group to help build and grow your business!
